

CHRIST IN ALL SCRIPTURES: From Genesis to Revelation and everything in between God and his pursuit of a love relationship with man is the central focus and Jesus Christ is the answer. Christ was the plan from the beginning and as we search for Him we find Him in every book of the Bible. This summer we are taking a journey through all 66 books of the Bible to find Christ in all scriptures.

I encourage you to join us by reading through the verses selected from each book in order and come to know Christ as God's eternal plan of hope. In your small group, come together and discuss what you are learning about Jesus Christ and God's plan.

This week we are spending the entire week in Psalms because there are so many great passages. This is just a beginning.

• Psalms The Blessed One (1:1-3)

Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers.

How does this passage relate to Christ?

• Psalms The Son of Man (2:7-9)

I will proclaim the decree of the LORD: He said to me, "You are my Son; today I have become your Father. Ask of me, and I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth your possession. You will rule them with an iron scepter; you will dash them to pieces like pottery."

How does this passage relate to Christ?

• Psalms The Crucified One (22:1-2)

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from the words of my groaning? O my God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, and am not silent.

How does this passage relate to Christ?

What have you discovered this week about Jesus from these Old Testament books?

• Psalms The Coming One (24:7-10)

Lift up your heads, O you gates;
be lifted up, you ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.
Who is this King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
the LORD mighty in battle.
Lift up your heads, O you gates;
lift them up, you ancient doors,
that the King of glory may come in.
Who is he, this King of glory?
The LORD Almighty—
he is the King of glory.

How does this passage relate to Christ?

• Psalms The Compassionate One (72:12-14)

For he will deliver the needy who cry out, the afflicted who have no one to help. He will take pity on the weak and the needy and save the needy from death. He will rescue them from oppression and violence, for precious is their blood in his sight.

How does this passage relate to Christ?

• Psalms He Sits the Right Hand of the LORD (110:1)

The LORD says to my lord, "Sit at my right hand until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

How does this passage relate to Christ?

Group Discussion Questions:

Review each of these passages from Psalms.

- How is it that David or any of the other writers of the Old Testament could so accurately describe that which would be true of Jesus Christ? What conclusion do you come to?
- Reading through these Psalms, which passage describes Jesus in a way that most encourages you?